Original

Handwritten musical notation on a page with ten staves. The notation includes various notes, rests, and bar lines, though it is somewhat faded and difficult to read in detail. The staves are arranged vertically, with the first staff at the top and the last staff at the bottom. The notation appears to be a single melodic line, possibly for a piano or violin. There are some markings that look like 'C' and 'F' which could be clefs or notes. The overall style is that of a handwritten musical score from the early 20th century.

Wingding
(Funeral March)

Music Arr. by
K. Proff-Kalfayan

Very Slow

Handwritten musical score for "Wingding (Funeral March)". The score is written in B-flat major (two flats) and 2/4 time. It consists of four systems of piano accompaniment. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides harmonic support with sustained chords and moving lines. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines. Above the first staff, there are handwritten notes in a non-Latin script, possibly Armenian, which appear to be lyrics or a transcription of the melody. A vertical orange line is drawn through the second measure of the first system.
